

GOV101 : Comparative Politics

This course is designed as an introduction to the basic concepts and themes in comparative politics. Using a case studies approach, the course compares and contrasts states according to political ideology, process, socialization, historical evolution, public policy, state institutions, and governmental systems.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

None

Semester Offered

Fall

Notes

Satisfies a Behavioral and Social Sciences general education requirement.