

GOV111 : American Government

This course provides an introductory examination of the federal government. Emphasis is placed upon the political system in both principle and practice, the structure of our government, and public safety.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

None

Semester Offered

Fall

Spring

Summer

Notes

Satisfies a Behavioral and Social Sciences general education requirement.