

AMT120 : Aviation Maintenance Technology (AMT): General Module 2

AMT General Module 2 for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is required by Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) Advisory Circular Part 147-3B. AMT General Module 2 introduces students to the applications of basic electricity and electronics, aircraft instrumentation systems, sheet metal structures, corrosion control and basic welding skills.

Credits 6

Prerequisites

ENL108: Critical Reading & Thinking or satisfactory basic skills assessment score

Semester Offered

Fall or Spring