

ECE291 : Leadership and Management in Early Childhood Education

This course explores administrative issues relating to leadership in Early Childhood Education: management styles, staff development and supervision including teacher training, staff collegiality, retention and evaluation, as well as collaboration with parents and community. This course meets Director II specifications EEC certification.

Credits 2

Prerequisites

ECE110: Child Growth and Development or PSY201: Child Psychology

Semester Offered

Spring