

HIS104 : U.S. History since 1865

This introductory survey of United States history from Reconstruction to the present addresses major social, cultural, political, and economic developments with emphasis on their relation to contemporary United States institutions and trends.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENL108: Critical Reading & Thinking or ESL201: English for Speakers of Other Languages III: Advanced or satisfactory basic skills assessment score

Semester Offered

Fall

Spring

Summer

Notes

Satisfies a Behavioral and Social Sciences general education requirement.