

HUS230 : Mental Health, Substance Abuse & Families

Mental Health, Substance Abuse, and Families reviews assessment, intervention, and treatment in dual diagnosis families, from a systems model. Topics include needs, concerns, and resistance in individual members and the family as a whole. Discussions revolve around the dynamics of codependency; a comparison of approaches to family recovery; treatment techniques appropriate to the different phases of family recovery; and strategies to help prevent family relapse.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

HUS101: Introduction to Human Services and PSY101: General Psychology or SOC106: Principles of Sociology

Co-Requisite Courses

HUS229: Introduction to Social Welfare

Semester Offered

Spring