

NUR101 : Dosage Calculations

This course examines the methods of dosage calculation required for safe administration of medications to children and adults. Interpretation of medical orders and systems of measurement are included. Introduces dimensional analysis to convert and calculate dosages of oral, parenteral, and intravenous medications.

Credits 1

Prerequisites

Admission to the Nursing Program, MAT035: Algebra for Non-STEM or satisfactory basic skills assessment score

Co-Requisite Courses

NUR107: Fundamentals of Nursing

Semester Offered

Fall

Summer