

PHI130 : Introduction To Philosophy

This course introduces the student to the primary branches and subsequent problems, questions, and schools of thought identified within western philosophy. Students are exposed to a number of influential philosophers and learn how to evaluate and identify inductive and deductive claims regarding philosophical arguments. There are focused emphasis on historical development and evolution of ideas over time.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

None

Semester Offered

Fall

Spring

Notes

Satisfies a Behavioral and Social Sciences general education requirement.