

AMT299 : Aviation Maintenance Technology (AMT): Powerplant Module II variable credit

A portion of the AMT program curriculum for only those students who are transferring in credits for AMT240 class that match the traditional eight-credit format from another FAA 147 approved program. The class modules selected must closely match the transferred AMT course and must have the approval of the AMT Program Director. Students may earn up to 7 credits pending review and approval by the AMT Program Director.

Credits 1-7

Prerequisites

ENL108: Critical Reading & Thinking or satisfactory basic skills assessment score and approval of the AMT Program Director and Dean of STEM.

Semester Offered

Varies