

Early Academic Intervention

4Cs faculty and staff work collaboratively to support students who may be struggling and to acknowledge when students are doing well. The College's Early Alert system allows faculty to reach out to students, advisors, and tutors at the first sign that a student might be struggling. The platform also allows faculty to recognize and congratulate students on a job well done.