

HRM101 : Introduction to Hospitality & Tourism Management

This course provides a comprehensive overview of the hospitality and tourism industry. Operations, management functions, career opportunities and emerging trends are explored. An overview of the various industry segments including lodging, food service, tourism, and event management are studied.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENL025: Reading & Writing Essentials or satisfactory basic skills assessment score

Semester Offered

Fall