

ART256 : Internship in Graphic Design

This course is designed to provide a practical experience in a professional graphic arts setting and preparation for a successful career in the graphic design field. Designation of intern site is based on student academic and career goals. The student works in a graphic design business for 150 hours.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ART171: Computer Graphics I (Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign), ART207: Design II, ART218: Typography, ART231: Computer Graphics II (Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign), and permission of the Visual Arts Coordinator

Semester Offered

Varies

Notes

May be repeated once for credit.