

ART257 : Art Gallery & Exhibition Management

This course offers an introduction to galleries and their management with both theoretical and practical experience. Students learn about public and private galleries and the acquisition, care, study, and diffusion of objects. It is designed as a hands-on experience working exclusively in CCCC Higgins Art Gallery. The course introduces the student to careers in art practice, gallery and exhibition management. The student gains theoretical and practical experience in the field of display methods, design and management. Class includes 15 hours of lecture and 60 hours of gallery work. Work scheduled hours appropriate to the demands of the gallery setting.
