

AMT210 : Aviation Maintenance Technology: Airframe Module 1

AMT Airframe Module 1 for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) is required by Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR) Advisory Circular Part 147-3B. AMT Airframe Module 1 introduces students to the applications of aircraft pneumatic and environmental systems, aviation human factors, mechanic privileges and limitations, publications, forms, records and regulations, ground operations and safety, aircraft fuel systems, cleaning and inspections, shop safety, wood structures, aircraft coverings and finishes and composite technology.

Credits 8

Prerequisites

Grade of C or higher in AMT110: Aviation Maintenance Technology (AMT): General Module 1 and AMT120: Aviation Maintenance Technology (AMT): General Module 2

Semester Offered

Summer