

BUS107 : Human Resource Management

Students learn about the principles and practices of human resource management including staffing, developing, motivating, leading and controlling the human resources of a business, government or non-profit agency.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

None

Semester Offered

Fall

Spring

Summer