

CRJ116 : Introduction to Corrections

This course is a general overview of corrections in the United States today, concentrating on the history, organization and administration of corrections, as well as sentencing, corrections law, career issues, tactical operations and the future of corrections.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

None

Semester Offered

Spring