

CRJ210 : Ethical Issues in Criminal Justice

This course examines ethical principles as they apply to the many practical problems which confront criminal justice professionals in the performance of their duties and responsibilities. Wherever possible, concrete case studies will be used to illustrate ethical reasoning.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

All Level I Criminal Justice courses

Semester Offered

Fall