

ECE211 : Curriculum Strategies for Teaching Math & Science to Young Children

Explore strategies, activities, and materials for teaching math and science to children in inclusive preschool and kindergarten settings. The course focuses on state and national standards and guidelines, as well as the constructivist project approach to teaching science and math. (6 hours observation/field work)

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

PSY201: Child Psychology

Semester Offered

Varies