

ENL170 : Producing a Magazine of the Arts

This course is designed to help students sharpen their writing and editing skills as well as learn the nuts and bolts of the publishing process. In this course, students examine existing art publications and learn about arts publications from the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. This course allows students to collaborate on a practical, hands-on project resulting in a Student Media Board publication that will be circulated throughout the CCCC community and beyond.
