

FSR129 : Funeral Directing I

This course focuses on the role of funeral service professionals including legal procedures and practices related to notification of death, transfer and disposition of bodies, arrangement conferences, procedures for fraternal, military and celebrity funerals, pre-planned funerals, and post-arrangement follow-up. Students apply basic knowledge of a cross-section of religious, spiritual, and ethnic heritage practices to planning funeral services.

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

FSR128: Social Foundations of Funeral Service

Semester Offered

Spring