

FSR239 : Restorative Art

This course introduces the basic principles, terminology, and techniques of restorative art. Students develop beginning skills in the areas of facial reconstruction and the use of common mortuary cosmetics. The course prepares students for reconstruction of areas of the body that have been distorted by traumatic injury or disease. (3 lecture hours and 2 laboratory hours/week).

Credits 4

Prerequisite Courses

FSR232: Embalming II

Semester Offered

Spring