

Advantage Program (TRiO Student Support Services)

The Advantage Program is a federally funded TRiO Student Support Services program supporting students to complete their Associate's degree and transfer to pursue a Bachelor's degree. Participants must be income-eligible, first-generation college students, and/or students with disabilities.

Additional information and contact information is available at the Advantage Program.