HIS160 : European History to 1600 CE

This course provides a general overview of major topics of European History from ancient times up to 1600 Current Era (CE). Students focus on cultural, religious, political, and economic developments that formed the basis of modern European culture and society and influenced the Americas and other regions.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENL108: Critical Reading & Thinking or satisfactory basic skills assessment scores

Semester Offered

Fall Spring

Summer

Notes

Satisfies a Behavioral and Social Sciences general education requirement.