THR106 : Theater History

This course covers the origins and development of theater as an art form from a historic, literary, social, cultural and artistic perspective. This course allows for in-depth study of the artists, playwrights and designers who have shaped the development of theater as an art form and how they have been affected by events and trends in history.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENL025: Reading & Writing Essentials or satisfactory basic skills assessment score

Semester Offered

Spring

Notes

Satisfies a Humanities & Fine Arts general education requirement.